HASTINGS LAW JOURNAL

You're Invited!

Word from the Executive Board

which is on schedule for December publication.

The Managing Team started off the year strong by welcoming fifty-five 2L Staff Editors to the Journal. We have also hosted a variety of successful events this year including the annual HLJ Day Orientation and Happy Hour as well as our yearly trip to a Giants game. We are currently looking forward to a Taco Tuesday outing at which we will be celebrating the 2L Staff's successful completion of issue one Tech Edits.

We are very pleased with the quality of submissions the Journal has received so far, and as a result, the article selection process is almost complete for the year. We are also happy to announce that we have selected a total of fourteen student-written Notes that will be published throughout Volume 68. And, in other exciting news, one of our very own HLJ alumni recently informed us that her Note, which was published in Volume 65, was cited in a petition for a writ of cert that is currently under review by the Supreme Court!

We are now hard at work planning this year's Fall Alumni Mixer and facilitating more fundraising efforts to improve the overall operations of the Journal. We want to express our gratitude to all alumni who have remained involved with HLJ throughout the years — the Journal would not be successful without our strong alumni network!

SCOCAblog

SCOCAblog is an online publication HLJ launched in 2014 in collaboration with Berkeley's California Constitution Center, the focus of which is providing substantive commentary and analysis of issues currently on the docket of the California Supreme Court. If you are a practitioner or academic working in a hotly debated area of state law, we invite and encourage you to submit a brief piece on recent or upcoming petitions, oral arguments, decisions, or any other noteworthy topic related to the California Supreme Court. If interested, please contact Jake Feaver at technology@hastingslawjournal.org. And, check out the latest Blog at scocablog.com!
