

KEYNOTE REMARKS

JOHN WITTE

John Witte, Jr., J.D. (Harvard); Dr. Theol. h.c. (Heidelberg), is Woodruff University Professor, McDonald Distinguished Professor, and Director of the Law and Religion Center at Emory University. A leading scholar of legal history, human rights, family law, and law and religion, he has published 300 articles and 45 books, in 15 languages. Recent monographs include: The Western Case for Monogamy over Polygamy (Cambridge, 2015), Church, State, and Family (Cambridge 2019), The Blessings of Liberty (Cambridge, 2021), Faith, Freedom, and Family (Mohr Siebeck, 2021), and Religion and the American Constitutional Experiment (Oxford, 2022). Professor Witte has delivered more than 350 public lectures throughout the world, including, recently, the Franke Lecture at Yale, the Jefferson Lectures at Berkeley, the Pennington Lecture at Heidelberg, the Cunningham Lectures at Edinburgh, the McDonald Lectures at Oxford, and the Gifford Lectures at Aberdeen. See <https://www.johnwittejr.com/>